

SWEG TRIO

Chamber ensemble of three young flautists from Music school Vysoké Mýto in the Czech Republic. The girls have been playing since young age. Music is their hobby and they would like to study flute further. The trio has been playing together for two years and has won several competitions.