

Nikolai Tokmin (2015) is a 1st class student at Ahtme School of Arts and has been playing the violin for one and half years. He already took an active part in some little concerts and regional competitions. This year he was awarded 1st price and «best violin player» title in string instrument competition of Virumaa region (Estonia). His hobbies are reading books and drawing.