

Vasilije Hadzic from Budva, born on May 20th, 2010 in Kotor.

Parents: father Dragan Hadzic, a doctor and mum Dragana Scekcic, a bachelor of economics.

He is a student of Elementary School "Stjepan Mitrov Ljubisa" in Budva and he attends the seventh grade. He is in Year 7 of Elementary Music School in Budva.

In the previous schooling of both schools, he finished with excellent success and exemplary behavior.

His biggest love is playing the violin.

His mother persuaded him to apply for a music school and in the same school he received the greatest help and support from a violinist Dusica Kordic in whose class he is, and a pianist Nikola Vuckovic.

These two people helped him to sail into the world of classical music, for which he says there is nothing more magical and sublime. He is grateful for the love they gave him!

He is immensely grateful to his mother, who is his safe harbor and the greatest support, without whom it would be impossible to have dreams and make them come true.

He sees himself on the biggest world stages. He will do everything to make his dreams and aspirations come true.

For him, classical music represents the highest thing that a human being can achieve.

He doesn't look back at the negative comments from people who don't understand this kind of music.

He has been playing the violin since he was six years old.

He was a participant in a master class with the academician professor dr Vladimir Markovic.

He had more than thirty public performances.

He is learning English and Italian language.

He is training basketball and he likes fishing and programming.
