

Victoria Tan Music Biography

Victoria Tan, from the United States, plays the violin and piano, and has performed at numerous music halls, including Carnegie Hall and international venues. She was awarded many grand and first prizes in violin and piano competitions. She has performed with the Washington Heights Chamber Orchestra in New York, the NV Chamber Orchestra in New Jersey, and the Metropolitan String Orchestra in Connecticut. Besides her interest in music, Victoria loves reading and writing; she has won several poetry contests and had her work published in magazines, journals, and books.