

Xu Zijie is a third year student majoring in Ethnic Percussion at the Affiliated Music School of Zhejiang Conservatory of Music. He was awarded the "Star of Folk Music" (highest award) in the Professional Group A of the first "National Rhyme Cup" Ethnic Instrumental Music Exhibition in 2022 and was selected for the "Excellent Folk Music Talent Support Program of the Chinese Ethnic Orchestra Society". At the same time, his performance works were selected for the Excellent Works Exhibition Concert. First place at the 2021 Beijing Drum Festival Professional Youth Group Bangu Group Gold Award, third place at the Big Drum Group Bronze Award, and Special Excellent Performance Award at the Paigu Group. First place at the Gold Award of the Percussion High School Group in the 2020 Zhejiang Youth Ethnic Instrumental Music Exhibition. Actively participated in various competitions at home and abroad and achieved excellent results. Participated in art practice activities such as "literary light cavalry" and "praise the new era" for many times, went to Quzhou, Zhoushan, Yuyao, Xiaoshan, Linping, Chun'an, Shaoxing and other places in Zhejiang Province and served as the main voice part. The Chinese percussion music works "Yiwu • Yixing" and "Fantasy" were first performed and created.