

Annie began to learn piano when she was almost five. Her teacher is Mariko Okuma Hallerdt with whom she began to have more and more interest in music. She has loved performing in front of many people since she was small and she is a very happy positive girl. Besides piano she also likes sports such as ice-skating and swimming.