

Cai Jiaxuan is a young and promising flute player. She is currently studying at the School of Music at Shanghai University, under the guidance of renowned performer Ms. Yao Jing. Since the age of nine, Cai Jiaxuan has embarked on her flute learning journey and has demonstrated astonishing musical talent. In her music career, Cai Jiaxuan joined the Ningbo Youth Symphony Orchestra at the age of 17 and performed brilliantly at the "Summer Elf Flute Concert" in the same year. This performance not only showcased her playing skills and musical expression ability, but also won her the appreciation and applause of the audience. Cai Jiaxuan has a passion for music and a unique understanding of the flute. She constantly strives to learn and explore, and in her studies at the music academy, she continuously improves her playing skills and musical insights. Cai Jiaxuan believes that music is an art that transcends language and can move people's hearts and convey emotions. She hopes that through her performance, she can bring the audience a wonderful music experience and share the power and emotions of music with them. Cai Jiaxuan is full of expectations for the future. She will continue to study hard, pursue excellence in music, and hope to become an outstanding flute player, bringing beauty and inspiration to the world with her music. She believes that through her efforts and dedication, she will be able to achieve greater success in the field of music and make her own contribution to the music industry.