

Jordina Wang is a distinguished 15-year-old pianist with seven years of musical dedication. Alongside her mastery of the piano, Jordina also showcases her talent on the cello and violin. Inspired by the works of Chopin, Jordina possesses a deep appreciation for the Romantic period in music. Eager to share her passion and skill on the international stage, Jordina is grateful for the opportunity to participate in such a prestigious music competition. Prepare to be enchanted by Jordina's artistry and musical prowess as she brings her love for music to life.