

NORA KOPPA Short Bio

Nora started piano studies at the age of 9. She showed great progress immediately, progressing in repertoire with ease. She has participated and won prizes in several regional competitions. This is her first international competition.

Nora also loves horseback riding and sport activities in general.