

Llum Colomer Bau, piano

Born in Barcelona, she completed her Higher Degree studies in the specialty of Classical and Contemporary Piano Music Performance at the Liceu Superior Conservatory of Music in Barcelona with the pianist Alba Ventura, and in the specialty of Chamber Music with the clarinetist Isaac Rodriguez.

Awarded on several occasions, including first prize as best Lied pianist in the 1st Competition of the AESPIRE Association (Association of Repertorists of Spain), 1st prize in the VI, IX and X Antoni Besses Piano Competition or finalist of the Extraordinary Awards of the Liceu Superior Conservatory of Music in the chamber music category.

He has received musical advice from great pianists such as Luiz de Moura, Dina Yoffe, Oliver Triendl, Ives Henry and Marta Zabaleta (among others). He has participated in different summer courses, such as the Pau Casals Festival Academy in Prades (France) where he has received advice from great performers specialized in chamber music such as the Casals Quartet, Artis Quartet, Meta4 Quartet, Lorenzo Coppola and Laurentiu Sbarcea (among others).

With a scholarship from the Victoria de los Ángeles Foundation, she has received classes from world-class performers, such as Felicity Lott, Simon Lepper, Anna Bonitatibus and Irene Théorin in the specialty of Lied and Mélodie.

She has recently been accepted at the Toulouse Regional Conservatory of Music to study basso continuo and at the Badalona Municipal Conservatory of Music to study harpsichord, obtaining the highest grade.