

Melody, a dreamy team composed of two outstanding young flute players. Their mentor is Ms. Yao Jing, a renowned flute player. Cai Jiaxuan is studying music performance flute at the School of Music at Shanghai University. She is a student in the 2023 cohort. Chen Haowen, on the other hand, is a student in the 2021 cohort who also specializes in music performance and flute at the School of Music at Shanghai University. The tacit understanding and understanding of music of these two geniuses are almost flawless, allowing them to shine in various competitions and performance stages. They have collaborated to perform works of various periods and styles, from Mozart's classic excerpt "The Magic Flute" to the works of Taylor Mann and Bach. Their tacit understanding and cooperation have enabled each performance to showcase a high level of artistic proficiency. Melody, let the music shine brightly in their flutes.
