

Olivia is a fifth-grade student at Adolf Fredriks musikklasser in Sweden, who has a passion for music and the arts. She enjoys playing the piano, flute, and singing, as well as engaging in activities such as synchronized swimming and drawing. Olivia finds great joy in the emotions and experiences that music brings into her life. She is excited to participate in the upcoming piano competition and hopes to share her love for music with others.