

Pey Onveerakul, a young violinist born on February 24, 2010, is currently pursuing his musical education at Regent's International School Bangkok. Discovering his love for the violin at the age of 5, Pey has been fortunate to receive recognition for his performances, including awards from competitions like the Birmingham International Music Competition and the Euterpe Music Awards in Berlin. While he cherishes the opportunities to showcase his talent in solo performances, such as his rendition of Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto Movement 3 with the ROYAL THAI ARMY BAND DEPARTMENT, Pey also finds fulfillment in using music to bring comfort and joy to the residents of Bang Khae Nursing Home. Embracing his musical journey with gratitude and humility, Pey continues to strive for excellence and share his passion for music with audiences around the world.
