

Aleksandra Radovanovic, born in 2005 in Belgrade, Serbia is actively involved in music, since the age of 7. At Musical school “Mokranjac” she graduated in Piano at class of Professor Jelena Stojiljkovic Vranic. At the moment she is attending a last year of High School in Harp, in class of Prof.Mag. Dijana Sretenovic.

She is a winner of a first prize at:

- Republic Music Competition (in 2016 and 2021),
- Memorial “Dusan Protic” (in 2017, 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024)
- Vojvodina Harp Fest (in 2022 and 2024)
- International Competition “Petar Konjovic” (in 2022)
- Memorial “Milica Baric” (First prize winner and Laureate in 2023 and 2024)

Apart from that, she is also a Second Degree Winner at Scandinavian International Instrumental Music Competition; First prize Winner at JSFest Competition ; Golden plaque and 3rd place winner at 6th International Competition of the Slovenian Harp Association; Absolute winner and Laureate of XIV World Open Music Competition and has received invitation to participate at Cap Ferret Festival; First prize winner in Servaas International Music Competition as well as First Prize Winner of Royal Mass International Competition.

In 2024, she also achieved significant results: 1st place at Lugano International Music Competition; 2nd place at Savshinsky International Music Competition; 1st place at Concours International Leopold Bellan Competition and invitation to perform at Super Final in Paris.

She is also a winner of numerous Special Awards, nominated by Jury.

Except being involved in music competitions, she was actively participating at famous music festivals in Serbia (Kustendorf classic) and Concerts organized by her High School.