

My name is Alexandra, I am a harp teacher. I graduated from college and institute in harp class. I perform a lot at different harp festivals with solo and ensemble. My students are regular participants of different competitions, unlike me. I have not participated in many competitions and this is my first international competition. I found your competition very interesting, I hope I will do well.”