

Stockholmstrion

Stockholmstrion is a Swedish pianotrio with Nicole Biegniewska, violin, Gustav Schantz, piano and Filip Graden cello. Three strong personalities yet with harmonious characters have made the trio stand out on the Swedish classical music scene. The trio was founded in 2023, when its members decided to turn a long lasting friendship into a music collaboration. Ever since, they have performed at numerous concerts and festivals throughout Sweden, enchanting audiences with their unique blend of talent, technical skill, and emotional depth. They have received masterclasses from prominent Scandinavian figures, e.g. Johannes Rostamo, Julia Kretz, Mats Widlund and Stefan Bojsten. The upcoming season includes debuts at Järfälla kammarmusikförening, Fairplay chamber music festival as well as intense preparation for the esteemed competition "Ung och Lovande" 2025.
