

Radka Lukešová was born on 17 February 2010. When she was 6 years old, she started playing the fipple flute and one year later she started playing the trumpet at the musical school Havlíčkova Pardubice by Mr. Roman Faltys. She was soon very successful. She participates both in national and international competitions regularly and she has received lots of awards. Her biggest latest achievements include 1st prize in the international solo competition Žestě Brno 2022, 1st prize in the national solo competition of musical schools 2022 in Prague, 1st prize in the national chamber ensemble competition of musical schools 2023 in Liberec ("Pardubické trumpet'andy" duo), 1st prize in the chamber ensemble competition in Vidnava 2023 ("Pardubické trumpet'andy" trio) and 1st prize in the international competition Allegro Prague 2024 ("Pardubické trumpet'andy" trio). She also plays the piano and likes dancing and bouldering.

Ludmila Doleželová was born on 3 June 2013. When she was 6 years old, she started playing the trumpet at the musical school Havlíčkova Pardubice by Mr. Roman Faltys. She was soon very successful. She participates both in national and international competitions regularly and she has received lots of awards. Her biggest latest achievements include 2nd prize in the international Music and Singing Competition "Giovani in Crescendo 2023", 1st prize in the national chamber ensemble competition of musical schools 2023 in Liberec ("Trumpet'andy" duo), 1st prize in the chamber ensemble competition in Vidnava 2023 ("Pardubické trumpet'andy" trio) and 1st prize in the international competition Allegro Prague 2024 ("Pardubické trumpet'andy" trio). She also likes athletics.

Thea Čiháková was born on 13 January 2013. When she was 3 years old, she started playing the fipple flute and four years later she started playing the trumpet at the musical school Havlíčkova Pardubice by Mr. Roman Faltys. She was soon very successful. She participates both in national and international competitions regularly and she has received lots of awards. Her biggest latest achievements include 2nd prize in the international Music and Singing Competition "Giovani in Crescendo 2023", 1st prize in the national chamber ensemble competition of musical schools 2023 in Liberec (“Trumpet’andy” duo), 1st prize in the chamber ensemble competition in Vidnava 2023 (“Pardubické trumpet’andy” trio) and 1st prize in the international competition Allegro Prague 2024 (“Pardubické trumpet’andy” trio). She likes learning foreign languages, mathematics, and drawing. She loves ballet which she has been practicing for 5 years.