

The VivaMuse ensemble was founded in 2015 by a group of musicians from the St. Petersburg. The ensemble takes an active part in the cultural life by performing at various events, including those held at the State Hermitage Museum, the Moscow Theological Academy and the St. Petersburg State Capella itself.

VivaMuse participated in various national and international festivals: "Soloists of the Baltic", the cultural project "Russian Seasons", the international action "Night of Museums", the Belgrade Music Festival "BEMUS", (Belgrade, Serbia), International Music Festival "Fajr" (Tehran, Iran), International Music Festival "ORGAN+" (Kaliningrad), St. Petersburg International Book Salon, Organ Festival "Faces of Musical Styles". Masterclasses with Denis Severin and Andrew Lawrence -King

VivaMuse Ensemble

Evgeniya Klevtsova [first violin, artistic director]

Natalia Grinjuk [second violin]

Alexey Andreev [viol]

Natalia Neskromnaya [cello]

Ljudmila Sidenko [mezzo-soprano]

Mikhail Blekher [harpsichord]