

I grew up in Gothenburg, Sweden and started playing the violin at 4 years of age. I was trained by skilled violinists and at 9 years of age I joined YOMA where I met excellent teachers and young passionate music students. I enjoy playing the violin, most notably together with other musicians in an orchestra.