

Good morning!

My name is Lorenzo D'Itri. I was born in Rome (Italy) the 5th February 1995. I am a composer and pianist based in Milan (Italy). In 2022 I got the master degree in Piano at Conservatory of Trieste (Italy), one of the 13 historical Conservatories in Italy. In 2021 I got the master degree in Law at University of Milan. I have been playing in live piano performances since I was 11.

My repertoire ranges from Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Mendelssohn to Liszt, Alkan, Busoni and Sgambati. My compositions are both for piano solo and orchestra with chorus; my composing style, strongly influenced by the XVIII and XIX centuries styles, can be defined neo-baroque, getting inspiration directly by Bach and Vivaldi, and neo-romantic, inspired by Liszt, Chopin, Alkan and Mendelssohn. I fluently speak Italian , English and Spanish.

Kind regards,

Lorenzo D'Itri
