

Esther Scalamonti Marsh is a piano student at the Music School Lilla Akademien in Stockholm, Sweden, where she studies under Inara Axelsson. She has played piano since the age of four and has participated in numerous competitions, earning 3rd place at the Stockholm International Music Competition in 2019, 2nd place at SIMC 2023, and 6th place at the Ilze Graubina First International Music Competition in Riga 2025. Esther has performed three times at Piano Visions in Stockholm and twice in the Stockholm Steinway Competition. She regularly takes part in external concerts, including performances in churches, and is active as a chamber musician and accompanist for classical singers.