

Lika is 8 years old and lives in a suburb of Tallinn. She is currently in her second year of studies at the Lasnamäe Music School, where she learns piano under the guidance of her teacher, Sofia Nesterova.

Lika enjoys playing both solo and in ensemble with her older brother. Alongside learning classical repertoire, she loves composing her own piano melodies and often creates original dances to different types of music.

In 2025, she made her debut in the "Best Young Instrumentalist" competition and was awarded a Diploma.
