

Benjamin Sabbah (12) is a great talent in violin who has won 1st prizes in the national Midgard competition in violin and piano and 2nd prize in the youth music championship on piano. He studies violin at the Barratt Due Music Institute in Oslo with Alf Richard Kraggerud. Benjamin has also won prizes in international piano competitions. He regularly plays in concerts with his siblings or as a soloist.

He has played several concerts at churches in Vestfold such as Andebu Church, Larvik Church, Sandefjord Church, Horten Church, the Methodist Church in Horten, Tjølling Church.

He has also played at private events, nursing homes and Christmas parties in Vestfold and Oslo.

He is part of the musical Sabbah family and is the brother of the virtuoso pianist Samuel Sabbah (16) and singer Gabriella Sabbah (14), both of whom are well-known Norwegian talents.