

Bryan Timotius Halomoan Simanjuntak is a pianist, born in 2004. Currently pursuing his bachelor's degree at Joseph Haydn Privathochschule in Eisenstadt, Austria, Bryan continues to refine his craft under the tutelage of the esteemed Stanislaw Tichonow. His musical journey is marked by a firm foundation laid during his earlier studies with Edith Widayani and through participation in prestigious masterclasses at the Gitanada School of Music in Jakarta, Indonesia, the European Music Institute Vienna, and the Wiener Musikseminar, and at the Allegro Vivo Summer Academy in Horn, Austria.

Bryan's passion for music has earned him significant recognition in the international music community. In 2024, he won the first prize 'Assoluto' in the 3rd International Music Competition "Città di Cervignano" in category F. The previous year, he secured the first prize in the Young Pianists section of the Roma International Piano Competition and placed second in the 9th International Mozart Competition in Georgia in category E.

Besides his academic and competitive achievements, Bryan has a rich performance history. He has given solo concerts at notable venues, including PianoCity Pordenone in Italy, which was a prize of the competition in Cervignano previously mentioned, and in the Steinway Gallery in Jakarta, Indonesia.
