

Herte Trepp (9) studies at the Lääne-Harju Music and Arts School in Estonia, under the guidance of teacher Oksana Lohinova. She started piano studies at the age of 6. From the beginning, Herte has shown great interest in the instrument and dedication to practicing. When learning a new piece, she wants to deeply explore the background, meaning of the music and interesting facts about the composer. Herte has participated in several regional competitions, including the Estonian Northwest Region Music Schools Competition, where she has won prizes in her age group for two years. Herte also plays the trumpet. In her free time, she likes to sing and read.
