I started learning piano when I was seven years old, and music has become a very important part of my life. Besides playing the piano, I love singing because music brings me great joy. In my free time, I enjoy playing table tennis and I am a member of the Solna BTK club. I am very happy to take part in this year’s piano competition, and I believe it will be a wonderful experience